RE: Questions regarding pseudoephedrine amendment

Hi Mike. With respect to questions in 1) - just pills, as presently spelled out in the bill; 2) - that langauge is just fine, good; 3) & 4) - at the discretion of the DA for enforcement and concerning penalties/violations, treat like we would for cigarettes or alcohol.

Let me know if any of this does not make sense.

Thankx a mil Mike.

Cheers, deano

Questions regarding pseudoephedrine amendment

1.. What type of pseudoephedrine products do you want covered? Anything with pseudeoephedrine in it? Or do you want to exclude gelcaps? Liquids? Products with other active ingredients?

No person may display or offer for sale X unless it is displayed or offered for sale only behind a checkout counter where the public is not permitted or within 10 feet of a checkout counter attended by a person with an unobstructed view of the package containing the substance.

- 3. Who should be responsible for enforcing this and the age restriction? DATCP? Local DA's?
- 4. Should there be a specific penalty for violating either the access or the age prohibitions? (If you don't specify one, the general penalty provision in s. 939.61 (1) would apply.)

Hi Mike, I apologize for not getting back to you right away. I would say "yes," include the defense for sale provision, it's reasonable.

Thankx again for the help!

Hi Mike. Thank you so much for getting the sub. amendment to AB 183 to Representative Vukmir so quickly, everything looks good - with one minor exception (I hate to do this to you), but Representative Vukmir would like a small change/addition.

On Page 2, under "Prohibitions" (a), lines 1-5, Representative Vukmir would also like a store to have the ability to have the pseudoephedrine out in the store asiles, much like some stores treat alcohol. I don't want to confuse the issue here, but if a store wishes to go ahead and place the product behind the counter that would be fine too. I guess that would ultimately fall under the ambit of a store policy. However, the most important aspect with the sub. Amendment is the requirement that the store may not sell the product to any person under the age of 18.

Again, thank you so much Mike, much appreciated.

Cheers, deano
